

January 2011

We are excited to share with you that we have started the new year with another story of an individual accepting Christ. The story begins while out on visitation. We had just arrived back at the church when a 27yr old man approached us with questions about the church. We answered his questions and that next Sunday he and his family attended. After their first visit, I visited with them in their home and discovered that he was a proclaiming deist. After a handful of personal visits, Matt Yockey accepted Christ as his personal Lord and Savior on a Sunday night at one of our small group meetings. He is scheduled to be baptized in February and he along with his wife are going to be involved in our discipleship ministry.

There are more like Matt that need to hear the good news of Jesus Christ. In our last letter we introduced you to John that accepted Christ, he was baptized on December 26th. John had never heard that Jesus had risen from the dead. We praise God for allowing us to be part of His work in Northwest Arkansas. Without a doubt God has placed us right where He wants us. As you can see from the news clipping, we are in the fastest growing city in the state. There is so much potential here and we are energized to work for the Kingdom of God.

January allows us the opportunity to reflect on what happened during the previous year and we rejoice in the steps that God has allowed our young church to take. Praise Him that our church has experienced growth for the last seven months.

As a church plant we have relied on the gifts of churches and individuals to get us up and going. Our goal is to work toward being self-supported by the tithes and offerings of the members of Lifepoint. At this point we are a third of the way to our goal.

God has given us a recipe for success: bring them to Jesus Christ, baptize and disciple them to bring others to Jesus. If we keep our eyes on that commission, His church will produce fruit!

Please pray for the salvation of Jason, Saylee, Lina, Terry, Carissa, Eric, Daymon, Doug, Paul, Jannine, David and Kevin. Our church is also praying for God to open up the opportunity to move away from renting to purchasing our own place.

With thanksgiving,
Pastor Mike Brinson
